

Title: Luck vs. Faith — Where's Your Trust?

Scripture:

“Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.”

— Proverbs 3:5–6 (NIV)

Many people say, “Good luck!” or “I hope you get lucky!” But as believers, we know that our lives aren't guided by random chance or four-leaf clovers — they're guided by the hand of God.

Luck depends on chance. Faith depends on Christ. Luck is wishing. Faith is trusting.

Story:

A young boy named Daniel was about to take an important test. His friend gave him a rabbit's foot and said, “Here — for good luck!” Daniel took it politely but later gave it back. He prayed instead, “God, I know my future is not in this rabbit's foot but in Your hands. Help me to do my best and trust You with the rest.”

Daniel passed the test — not because of luck, but because he prepared, prayed, and trusted God for the outcome.

Closing Thought:

Brothers and sisters, let's not lean on luck or superstition. Let's put our full faith in the One who holds tomorrow.

“Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.”

— Hebrews 11:1 (KJV)

Luck might run out — but faith in Christ never will.
